CAREER SUMMARY

I am an energetic, dedicated individual with strong interpersonal skills. Extensive 19 year law enforcement background with several years as an investigator, supervisor, and Master Training Instructor. I have a proven ability to work effectively with people of various ages, cultural backgrounds, and socio-economic statuses. I have a long time interest in investigations as well as classroom instruction. I have well developed courtroom testimony skills.

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Having dedicated my career to criminal and civil investigations as well as classroom instruction, I have a passion to make solid cases, testify to them effectively, and teach others how to do the same. I especially love the new challenges social media and smart devices present and how they can help with investigations. I have developed thousands of hours of classroom instruction teaching various topics to law enforcement, security personnel, military personnel, private investigators, and civilians.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Macon Police Department Macon Georgia

03/10/1997-01/06/2014

Traffic Fatality Investigator/Master Training Instructor

In my career, I have spent several years assigned to the Traffic Division. I did two tours with the DUI Task Force and with the Traffic Fatality Investigation Unit. In 2006, I was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and I took over the supervision duties of the unit. I worked all chargeable fatalities that required prosecution from the District Attorney's office. My duties included, but were not limited to:

- Supervision and day to day operation of the unit
- Investigate all traffic accidents with serious injury and death
- Measure accident scenes and create scale diagrams
- Professionally photograph accident scenes and victims injuries
- Conduct speed analysis
- Conduct time/distance analysis
- Conduct roadway evaluations
- Conduct vehicle inspections
- Interview witnesses and suspects
- Prepare cases for prosecution in court
- Testify as an expert witness

I was also the Master Training Instructor for the Macon Police Department and the Assistant Training Director. I teach traffic accident investigation as well as a variety of law enforcement and cultural awareness classes. My duties include, but are not limited to:

- Coordination of new recruit training
- Teaching in-service classes for Georgia P.O.S.T. certification
- Preparing and approving lesson plans
- Acts in the Training Directors place when he is not available
- Conducts annual firearms qualifications
- Conducts annual driving qualifications
- Teach new and veteran officers around the state
- Teach classes like Firearms, Cultural Diversity, Social Media Investigations, Community Policing, & Ethic

Law Enforcement Special Agent

As a member of the investigative team of investigators I am responsible for assisting four attorney's including the elected District Attorney David Cooke. I primarily investigate violent crimes. My primary job functions are:

- Assist each attorney by interviewing witnesses
- Serve subpoenas
- Prepare official reports
- Testify in court
- Assist with jury selection
- Retrieve and secure evidence
- Support the team's effort to prosecute crimes

I am also the Training Instructor for our unit. I coordinate all in-service training including firearms and specialty training to enhance our unit's ability to solve and investigate crimes.

EDUCATION

I am a 1992 graduate of Central High School in Macon, Bibb County, Georgia. I have also obtained an Associates Degree in Criminal Justice Technology through Central Georgia Technical College on May 8, 2012.

SPECIAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

With many years of experience working traffic accidents and testifying to their cause in court, I have been acknowledged as an expert witness in Municipal, State, Superior, and Federal court. Additionally, as a trainer, I have instructed more than 1000 students in various subjects over the years. Prior to the law enforcement consolidation between the Macon Police Department and the Bibb County Sheriff's Office in 2014, I was the only person in the history of Macon PD to achieve Master Training Instructor status by meeting the requirements set by the Georgia P.O.S.T. Council.
